1. JBS Youth Advocacy Program (JCYAP) FY13 - Contract #4199

This contract will provide for continued development and on-site management of the JCYAP program. The primary goal of JCYAP is to reduce the number of court involved youth who are at “very high risk” (youthful, chronic and serious offenders) for DYS commitment by providing effective community based alternatives that are strength-based with individualized service plan options developed and monitored by Community Care Advocates within the targeted youth’s home community. JCYAP is 100% grant funded through Alabama Department of Youth Services (DYS). Effective Dates: 10/1/2012-9/30/2013

Cost: $171,974.00
Amount budgeted: $171,974.00
Remaining budget: $0.00

2. JBS Return to Aftercare Program (RAP) FY13 – Contract #4218

This contract will provide for on-site management of the Jefferson County Return to Aftercare Program (RAP). The RAP has successfully demonstrated and sustained cost-effective cross-agency collaboration with the primary goal of reducing the recommitment of high risk/high needs juveniles with co-occurring mental health, social and substance abuse problems. RAP is 100% grant funded through Alabama Department of Youth Services (DYS) and State of Alabama Department of Mental Health. Effective Dates: 10/1/2012-9/30/2013

Cost: $73,000.00
Amount budgeted: $73,000.00
Remaining budget: $0.00

3. JBS Mental Health Services FY13 – Contract #4217

This contract will provide for on-site mental health services to Jefferson County Family Court clients including psychiatric evaluations, psychological assessments, mental health consultations with Family Court staff and case management services. Effective Dates: 10/1/2012-9/30/2013

Cost: $124,000.00
Amount budgeted: $124,000.00
Remaining budget: $31,620.00
